

Rejuvenation of the river valley along the River Leven, focussing on underused and undervalued land, which aims to highlight local shared heritage (industrial and natural) and community engagement.

Pre-development (2019)

Published Sustrans Places for Everyone (PFE)-funded Levenmouth Active Travel and River Park Concept Masterplan

Development of River Park Project (2022)

c.£250,000 National Lottery Heritage Fund (NLHF) + match funding

Designing (2023-2024)

Setting up River Park Project Steering Group

Community engagement and consultation across all key areas of work

Site feasibility studies

Finalising reports and designs for key areas of work

Incorporation of Nature Network design into River Park

NLHF Stage 2 funding application

Delivery (2024-2028) Subject to funding

Delivery of project plans

Build capacity within community

Monitoring and Evaluation

Manage and maintain outputs

Funder:

Senior Programme Manager:

Kate Fuller

Kate.Fuller@greenactiontrust.org

Lead Partner:

Partners:

Project Summary:

The creation of an accessible and biodiverse public park along a 4km stretch of the River Leven, focussing on currently underused and undervalued land.

Green Action Trust is leading on seven key areas of work:

- Community Hub
- River Accessibility and Mill Lade Heritage Trail
- Methil Mill feasibility study
- Community Empowerment
- Interpretation Plan
- Hidden Heritage
- Capacity Building in heritage groups

